

Political Contributions Policy

The company has a policy against making contributions to political parties, political committees or candidates using company resources (including monetary and in-kind services), even where permitted by law, such as at the state or local levels.

As an example, the company does not use company resources to make independent campaign expenditures, or to contribute to state or local ballot measures, non-candidate organizations, including political convention host committees or to organizations established under Section 527 of the US Internal Revenue Code.

Political Action Committee (PAC)

The company has created a Federal PAC which operates under the regulations of the Federal Election Commission (FEC). This PAC provides a means for L3 Technologies, Inc. employees to voluntarily participate in the federal political and electoral process by making political contributions to federal candidates that meet specified criteria aligned with the company's interests. The PAC is funded by voluntary contributions made by eligible employees. Corporate funds and facilities, as permitted by law, are used to provide administrative support, including the solicitation of funds from eligible employees and the distribution of contributions.

The PAC operates in compliance with all applicable laws governing PACs, including laws requiring public disclosure of contributions. All funds raised and contributed by the PAC are reported in filings with the FEC and are available on its website at: www.fec.gov.

The PAC is managed by the Government Relations Office of L3 Technologies, Inc. and is overseen by an Executive Committee chaired by the Senior Vice President, Chief Global Business Development Officer and representatives from L3 Technologies, Inc. three business segments.

Employee Political Activity

The company encourages all employees to participate fully in the political process with their own resources by making personal decisions to support candidates and causes of their choice.

Contributions to Trade Associations

The company is a member of trade associations which are relevant to our business activities. We require these trade associations to advise us with respect to any of our dues that are used for lobbying activities and we report that information in our quarterly Lobbying Disclosure Act and Honest Leadership and Open Government Act filings. We do not make separate contributions to trade associations for the purposes of political contributions.

Compliance and Oversight

The Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors, oversees the company's political activities and receives reports from the Senior Vice President, Chief Global Business Development Officer, relating to the company's political activities including compliance, the Vice President of Government Relations and legal counsel, as appropriate. The Nominating and Governance Committee will also review and assess the adequacy of this policy from time to time and make recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding any changes it deems necessary or appropriate for adoption.
